American History Film Project

The American History Film Project is an ideal project for your whole troop. Your troop is invited to make a short (3-10 minutes) film about something in your local history. Then, the troop shares their film with their local community. This can be a small event where parents and others community members view the film. At this local event, girls are recognized for their work.

In June, films are show at our big national event outside of Washington, DC. Troops that attend the national event will learn from other students across the country. In previous years, students have traveled from Nebraska, California, New Jersey, Florida, and Illinois. We've also Skyped students from Arizona and Indiana. Girls will see their films on the big screen and answer questions from the audience.

Who: Brownies, Juniors, Cadettes, Seniors, Ambassadors, Families, Adults

When: The deadline for submitting a film is April 1. Our national event is always held the first Saturday in June, outside of Washington, D.C.

Cost: Free

Recognitions:
- Brownies: Celebrating Community badge.
- Juniors: Playing with the Past badge.
- Cadettes: Digital Movie Maker badge.
- Seniors: Truth Seekers badge.

At the local level, each girl receives a certificate of recognition for their community work as well as a sign that reads “I am an American Hero.”

For troops that attend the national American History Film Project event, each girl has a medal which is placed around her neck. After the event they stand on the red carpet, holding the American flag.

Registration: Every girl who participates in the film must submit a parent permission form, which is located on the Submit Films page of our website. Complete rules are included on the website, https://americanhistoryfilmproject.org/submit-films/ and the deadline each year is April 1.

Chaperones: Follow Safety Activity Checkpoints.

Notes: Because the American History Film Project is not a competition, we encourage adults and families to participate. However, everyone who helps with the film, including family members, must be listed in the final credits.

Questions: Contact Martha Barnes with questions about the American History Film Project.

Nebraska Trucking Association Women’s Council

Every roll of toilet paper, every pack of Twizzlers, every pair of socks and every lightbulb has been brought to your store by a truck. Those in trucking have a blast. Drivers enjoy sunsets, beautiful trees and freedom of driving our highways. Diesel technicians are in high demand and diagnose massive engines with diagnostic laptops, sensors and probes.

The Nebraska Trucking Association helps hundreds of trucking companies throughout the state of Nebraska with training, safety, compliance, promotion, laws and benefits. So many women are joining the industry that they’ve formed their own NTA Women’s Council to speak to the next generation of ladies in the trucking industry.

GIRLS TRUCKING & TRANSPORTATION ACROSS NEBRASKA
The Nebraska Trucking Association Women’s Council loves to reach out to your generation to help with everything from casual conversation at scout meetings to tours of trucks and more. Experts are available to help with the Transportation Badge as well. Women who are experts in the transportation and trucking field will be on hand to describe their own successful experiences and employment choices in the transportation field. These women include commercial truck drivers, owners of trucking companies, dispatchers, safety directors, diesel technicians just to name a few of the talents. If space allows we will attempt to have a semi-truck on hand so that the scouts may experience first hand what is like to sit at the controls and view the world from the seat of a truck cab.

Cost: $120 for groups of 25 or fewer. Rates vary for groups of 25 or more.
Recognitions: Brownie Making Friends Badge

PLAYING IN THE PAST
Girls will create a character from history by using their body, voice and imagination to engage in character development. Warm-up techniques, theater games and improvisation will be included. As a grand finale, the girls will see a show onstage at The Rose. Choices include Ella Enchanted (November 9), The Diary of Anne Frank (March 14), and The Sound of Music (June 13).

Ella Enchanted – Saturday, November 9, 12–1:30 p.m. (2 p.m. show)
- Ella enjoys an enchanted but complicated life in the kingdom of Frell. When her well-meaning—but self-centered—fairy godmother, Lucinda, bestows a “gift” of obedience on Ella, she fails to consider the complicated consequences. Ella’s mother warns her to never tell others of her “gift,” but when her mother is gone, her often absent father, Sir Peter, remarryes. Soon Ella finds herself shipped off to finishing school and at the mercy of self-serving stepsisters who sniff-out her secret. Will Ella’s true talent for learning languages—and a developing friendship with Prince Charmont—allow her to curtail the curse of her unwanted gift and live a life not controlled by others? This brand-new musical adaptation of a modern fairytale favorite offers a tried-and-true kind of storytelling with a tart, and thought-provoking, twist!

The Diary of Anne Frank – Saturday, March 14, 12-1:30 p.m. (2 p.m. show)
- Anne Frank was a real girl who was concealed in an Amsterdam storage attic with seven other people to evade the Nazis. Each day she would reflect on her harrowing ordeal in her journal. What emerged was a living, poetic, and often gently humorous portrait of childhood in the throes of a crisis. Witness her story live onstage at Omaha's Rose Theater.

The Sound of Music – Saturday, June 13, 12–1:30 p.m. (2 p.m. show)
- The world's most beloved musical bursts onto The Rose stage, alive with The Sound of Music! With songs such as “Edelweiss” and “Do-Re-Mi,” this final collaboration of Rodgers and Hammerstein was destined to win the hearts of audiences worldwide! When Maria is dispatched from the convent to serve as governess to the seven children of the Von Trapp family, her arrival is met with resistance. But, Maria’s soaring spirit and love for music is a winning combination that helps the family unite as they face the threat of a Nazi-occupied Austria.

Who: Juniors

Cost: $75 for groups of 25 or less, plus $10 per ticket to the show.

Recognitions: Junior Playing in the Past Badge
