GIRL SCOUT DAY AT THE OMAHA SYMPHONY

Girl Scout Day at the Omaha Symphony allows Girl Scouts to experience a live concert and participate in a workshop with Omaha Symphony staff and musicians. The experience begins with an Omaha Symphony Family Concert. Following the concert, Omaha Symphony staff and an Omaha Symphony musician lead Girl Scouts in a fun and interactive workshop exploring the world of music.

The 2019 Girl Scout Day was in February. Check back later for the 2020 workshop details!

COMING SOON TO YOUR OMAHA SYMPHONY:

Pirates Ahoy!

March 31 Family Concert

Ahoy, matey! All hands on deck to sail the Seven Seas in search of Blackbeard's treasure. Beware the notorious Captain Guerrero and his salty crew of scalawags who will stop at nothing to get to the treasure first. Lobbies open at 1:15 p.m. for preconcert lobby activities, including an instrument petting zoo and craft.

Rachmaninoff's Symphonic Dances

April 5 and 6

Rachmaninoff at his leanest and meanest – his frenzied, biting, and fantastic Symphonic Dances – headlines a program that includes Brahms' majestic and masterful concerto. Film composer Miklós Rózsa sweeps listeners off their feet with a grand waltz from MGM's 1949 Madame Bovary.

Wayne Brady

April 13

Wayne Brady, the Emmy-winning singer, dancer, actor and comedian, takes center stage with Music Director Thomas Wilkins and the Omaha Symphony for an unforgettable tribute to two entertainment icons: Sam Cooke and Sammy Davis Jr. Don't miss seeing this dynamic star of television (Whose Line is it Anyway, The Wayne Brady Show) and theatre (Chicago's Hamilton, Broadway's Kinky Boots) onstage with your Omaha Symphony.

Star Wars: A New Hope in Concert

May 3 and 4

A long time ago in a galaxy far, far away.... The Star Wars saga begins in Omaha with the groundbreaking blockbuster screened with John Williams' score performed in its entirety. The Force is strong with this one!
